FEAR MISSING BOY HAS BEEN DROWNED

Ernest Collins Has Not Been Heard of Since September 23, When He Left Ganges

Fear is felt that eleven-year-old Ernest Collins, who left Ganges for Victoria on board the Island Princess on September 22 may have slipped overboard and been drowned. Provincial Police, friends of the boy's parents, and the parents themselves have been carrying out a diligent search for the lad, but no trace of him has been found.

Mr. Collins is now in Vancouver making inquiries, while the city police there are conducting a search. The boy left Salt Spring Island with ten dollars in his pocket. He told officers on the ship he was going to visit his parents in Victoria.

The following is a description of the lad on the day he left home. Light tinned cap, brown sweater, with a V collar buttoning up to the neck, knickerbockers, black three-quarter hose and boots, fair hair and blue eyes. Although he is eleven years old he might be taken for a boy of thirteen years of age.

Train Crew Injured In Railway Accident

SASKATOON, Oct. 5.—Seven railway employees were injured at Kellier, Sask., between Melville and Saskatoon, early this morning when Canadian National passenger train No. 4, eastbound, collided with a long freight train which was partly on the main line and partly on the Kellier West End siding.

"Plain Foolishness" Leads Youth to Jail

"PLAIN foolishness" was the reason given police by Harvey McNeil (inset), twenty-year-old ledger-keeper in the Bank of Montreal branch at Galt, Ontario, in explaining why he stole over $30,000. The youth, who was arrested this week, confessed to a craving for a good time. The money, with the exception of about $5 which the youth says he spent, was recovered in a hole on the railway tracks near the city. According to police, McNeil said he learned the safe combination, made the loot, scattered a few hundred dollars in silver about to give the impression of a bank robbery and hid the money at night. Chief Gorman, who "stepped" the case, is also shown above, standing by the hole in the railway track where he recovered the money. The third photograph shows the bank premises with the trap-door at which a ladder was placed to make the robbery appear the work of an outsider. The lad's parents are said to live in Regina, Sask.

FLYING SQUADRON TO VISIT CLUBS

Victoria Kiwanians Prepare for Winter Activities—Seven "Little Brothers" Adopted Here

A flying squadron of Victoria Kiwanians will visit the Kiwanis Clubs of New Westminster, Mount Vernon, Bellingham and Anacortes in the near future. The committee had cases of more underprivileged children under investigation, and hoped to select some of these for their permanent attention.

A report of the sports committee was presented by its chairman, Mr. Louis Tweedle. Bowling will start for the Fall and Winter on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the Pemberton Alley. A gold tournament, in which the golfers of the club would be arranged in two teams, captained respectively by President B. C. Nicholas and Past-President Howard Miller, would be arranged shortly, he intimated.

Mr. Elwood Watkins said that the club would shortly proceed with its second wading pool project, and said the directors desired each member of the club to take some part in its construction.

"Stag" Smoker to Be Held
It was decided to hold a "stag" smoker in the near future. Mr. Harold M. Digson announced that the publicity committee advocated the holding of a dance or other entertainment function before the end of the present year.

Other reports submitted by committee chairmen were as follows: Forum committee, Mr. Len Phillips; reception and house committee, Mr. Fred M. McGregor; attendance committee, Mr. Victor King, and Mr. Charles W. Pangman.

A feature of the Kiwanis meeting was the musical treat that Professor Charles Hunt and his "Victorian" orchestra furnished. The musicians rendered a splendid programme of popular compositions, and were accorded a hearty vote of appreciation by the audience. The orchestra was composed of the following: Mr. Geo. Hackett, trumpet; Mr. Alex. Pitts, banjo; Mr. Bert Mars, saxophone, clarinet and musical director; drums, Mr. Jack Williamson, and piano and manager, Mr. Charles Hunt.

SAANICH WATERWORKS EXTENSION DISCUSSED

Ward Five Ratepayers Have Proposals Outlined—Police Scheme Also Reviewed

Proposal to extend the Saanich waterworks system to Cordova Bay at a cost of $41,000, was outlined by Councillors Oldfield and Kirkham at the meeting of Ward Five ratepayers, held at Royal Oak, Monday night.

Councillor Oldfield said there were two plans. One was to run a main connecting with the Quinlan Street main near Reynolds Street out to Cordova Bay; the other was to utilize the springs in the Cordova Bay district and install tank reservoir and local mains, which would cost $30,000. Councillor Oldfield did not favor the latter proposal, however, as it would not be a logical expansion of the waterworks system.

Councillor Kirkham, in dealing with the same subject, also referred to the low water pressure in the Gordon Head district and emphasized the necessity of replacing the 4,000 feet of eight-inch main on Cloverdale Avenue with twelve-inch piping, at a cost of $15,000.

The question of transferring the police system to control of the Provincial police was dealt with by Reeve Macnicol, who believed that this was a matter which should be decided by the people.

A warning was given irrigators by the Reeve, who said that the farmers, who were securing water at practically cost, used the larger meters and should pay a rental for them. He claimed that free rental of these large meters was unfair to the small water consumers.

TAX DELINQUENTS APPEAR IN COURT

Fourteen Victoria Offenders Escape With Warning—More Cases Before Magistrate Today

For the first time in many years, residents of British Columbia who have failed to make income tax returns to the Provincial Government were yesterday halted into the police courts in various cities throughout the Province. Three days have been set aside for prosecutions of the offenders of this regulation, and more cases will be dealt with in the courts again today and tomorrow.

Fourteen Victorians who failed to make income tax returns to the Taxation Department at the Parliament Buildings by September 29 last, appeared in the city police court here yesterday morning before Acting Magistrate James Forman, who presided in the absence of Magistrate George Jay, who is in ill-health.

All but two of the defendants told the court that they had filed their returns to the Government since their summons to appear in the police court had been received, and action against them was withdrawn. Cases against the remaining two defendants were adjourned for one week, on the understanding that their returns would be made within that time.

Acting Magistrate Forman warned the offenders that failure on their part in future to file their income tax returns with the Provincial Government by the date required would render them liable to a minimum penalty of a $100 fine.

Sixty-six summonses have been issued in Victoria against persons failing to make returns or filing inaccurate returns to the Provincial authorities, and of that number twenty have not been served, as it has been impossible to locate the persons sought.

Mr. Claude L. Harrison, city prosecutor, appeared for the Crown. The Taxation Department was represented in court by Mr. T. H. Leeming, assessor, and Mr. Frank Shandley. Two of the defendants were represented by Mr. Arthur Patton and Mr. A. D. Macfarlane.

FIRST IN AMERICA IS C.P. RAILWAY ENGINE

Locomotive Arrives in Winnipeg With Nickel Steel Shell Plate—Fastest Type Built in Canada

WINNIPEG, Oct. 5.—As a belated great and powerful locomotive, No. 2338, whose last name is G-3-D, the latest addition to passenger engines on Canadian Pacific Western lines, with even breathing and no undue clanging of bell or raucous screech of steam, pulled into Winnipeg this morning, the first of twelve to be put into service between Fort William and the Pacific Coast this Fall. Power and reliability were in every line, and the grace expected of high bred steeds, for No. 2338 and her sister, No. 2339, are the fastest type of engines ever built in Canada, and have a hauling capacity of fifteen modern steel cars each weighing ninety tons.

This has been accomplished without materially increasing the weight of the locomotive by using nickel steel boiler plate, which is the first nickel steel boiler shell plate used in locomotive boiler construction on the American continent. Superheaters have been applied with a combined header and throttle which allows of the use of superheated steam from

ALASKAN AIR SURVEY OPENS NEW COUNTRY

U.S. Navy Air-Mapping Expedition Expected to Add Much to Knowledge of Unexplored Areas

KETCHIKAN, Alaska, Oct. 5.—Flying two miles high to map 40,000 square miles of Alaskan territory, much of which seldom before has been seen by man, is a task that furnishes plenty of thrills, according to Lieut. Ben H. Wyatt, officer in charge of the navy air-mapping expedition which started operations out of Ketchikan this morning. It is by far the largest survey in square miles attempted by the air service of any nation and from the standpoint of the ruggedness of the terrain surveyed it has no equal, the lieutenant said.

Writing in The Chronicle, Lieut. Wyatt declared that "the rapidity with which an aerial survey can be made is astounding. An airplane flying at 15,000 feet above sea level, making 100 miles an hour, can survey a strip seven miles wide and 100 miles long—that is, 700 square miles—in one hour. Imagine the man on the ground covering 700 square miles of rugged mountain territory in an hour. Map Shows All Details

In making the survey a camera is mounted in the bottom of the plane and pictures are taken at periodic intervals. The developed photographs are matched into a complete "mosaic" picture, which shows the entire territory under survey. It is possible to scale this picture as accurately as any chart or blue print in this map all details such as trails, trees, streams, mountains, cultivated and uncultivated land clearly are seen.

The mapping of Alaska offers many difficulties that seem almost insurmountable. Lieut. Wyatt declared that the task "is and will be a severe test on the serviceability of aircraft, its ability to operate for long periods of time away from the home base in the face of many and severe difficulties. It is the supreme test of the practicability of the aerial method and last, but by no means least, a real service test for the men of the expedition.

"The country over which we are flying has not all that is said to be in the way of landing fields. We are told the brown bear of Alaska is particularly ferocious. This would be a consulting thought to the pilot and photographer as they were gliding their way homeward after having landed on one of the snow-capped peaks a hundred or so miles away from their base."

Natives Praise Work
 Alaskans generally are enthusiastic in their praise of the good which is being done by the air mapping. Much territory heretofore barely known has been discovered to contain immense possibilities for future industry. Telling of this phase of the work, Lieut. Wyatt said: "We have discovered lakes on the Island of Revillagigedo (on which Ketchikan is situated) which will produce tremendous power to turn the wheels of industry."

Now he announces an even more drastic change in cutting the working week to five days without reduction of wages and says a shorter work-day is coming. The announcement, which as yet does not apply to Ford himself and on the right he is shown driving the first Ford car in its experimental stages. This car is now kept in his machinery museum at Dearborn, Mich.

Reduction of Two Cents Announced In Gasoline Price

FOLLOWING the gasoline war in California, which spread to Oregon and Washington, resulting in a four-cent reduction in those states, the Union Oil Company of California announced yesterday that a two-cent reduction per gallon would go into effect today on the local market. ### DUKE CHARMED WITH CANADIAN ROCKIES

Duke Dimitri of Leuchtenberg Sorry His Wonderful Summer in Mountains Has Ended

DUKE DIMITRI OF LEUCHTENBERG

The beauty and charm of the Canadian Pacific Rockies have registered strongly upon the tourist, the trail rider and the mountain climber, and of the many expressions of appreciation received at the tourist department of the Canadian Pacific Railway, the following was received from Duke Dimitri of Leuchtenberg, Count de Beauharnois, who journeyed with the Trail Riders of the Canadian Rockies during their recent annual ride from Lake Louise. From Hanff he writes:

"I am terribly sorry that this wonderful Summer is coming to an end. This country is certainly one of the most beautiful and wild life I have ever seen in Lake Louise is really an ideal spot. I shall have about 3,000 feet of film of the prettiest spots of the region surrounding Hanff and Lake Louise. We are about to start out for Mt. Assiniboine where from we shall go to the Yoho Valley."

The Duke is a lineal descendant of Charles, Marquis de Beauharnois, who governed Canada in the name of the French King Louis XV, between 1734 and 1747. He traveled from Cherbourg on the Canadian Pacific liner Melita, meeting his cousin the Marquis d'Albion, who is taking part in the thirty-four day ride of the Trail Riders.

HOTEL CONTRACTORS NOT MUCH ALARMED

VANCOUVER, Oct. 5.—Officials of the E. J. Ryan Contracting Company, to whom the contract for the construction of the proposed Canadian National Hotel here had been awarded, expressed the opinion that the decision announced by Premier King is not as drastic as it sounds. The Government has cancelled or revoked the order in Council under which the C.N.R. directorate let the contract, they say, but in their opinion the contract itself stands as a valid agreement.

They point out that in 1921 the King Government cancelled a number of contracts for harbor development let on the eve of the election by the outgoing Meighen ministry, but subsequently reinstated them, one of these was that for the Burrard drydock, which is now operating at North Vancouver.

CATHEDRAL FUND MAKES PROGRESS

District Captains Meet to Report Progress—All Subscribers Are Gladly Received

Twenty "captains" of districts, representing the part of the parish in taking in the new Cathedral campaign, met in the Deanery last night to report progress to date in the effort to secure funds for building the new Cathedral Church Cathedral. Mr. W. B. Langham, chairman for the Cathedral parish, presided.

Gratification was expressed at reports indicating the cordial reception generally given to the canvassers and widespread interest in the undertaking. It was evident that members of practically all denominations, and many who had admitted that they were non-churchgoers, were joining with Anglicans in the community in helping to build the Gothic Cathedral projected in the city.

Careful Thought—Mr. Langham pointed out that the effort was not a "whirlwind" campaign, but a "financial" drive, to be got over in a few days or weeks. The new building scheme was the result of years of careful thought and preparation, and the present campaign was an endeavor to offer to all citizens the opportunity of taking a share in the erection of a cathedral which would be a great religious influence in the community and an architectural attraction to the city and island. Many of those present reported that they and their canvassers could give evenings only to the visiting, and that therefore more time would be needed before certain of the districts could be completely covered.

All Gifts Welcomed—The generosity of many families of moderate means was mentioned, and it was pointed out that a large number of small gifts indicated widespread support for the new cathedral and what it stood for. It was hoped that many large as well as small contributions would continue to be given, and the canvassers were urged to carry on their work in the spirit advocated by the Bishop, who had called for a quiet determination on the part of all to proceed with their efforts until the desired objective was reached.

It was decided to hold a similar gathering on Tuesday, October 19, by which time the chairman had full reports to be made by each captain of the returns in his district. The Dean of Columbia, rector of the parish, and Mr. R. J. Drake, secretary of the new cathedral committee, were among those present.

PARISIENNE SHOES EXHIBITED IN CITY

Many Attend First Day's Fall Fashion Display at Maynard's Shoe Store

The Fall Parisienne Ladies' Shoe Fashion Show is being exhibited at Maynard's Shoe Store, 643 Yates Street, today and tomorrow. La Parisienne Shoe Company, Montreal, is staging the exhibit, which includes no less than 250 models, ranging from silver and gold to the latest styles in crocodile skin leather and new fancy brocade. There is a large variety of step-in pumps with large, flouncing tongues. Lizard skin leather shoes are a novelty in this exhibit which displays the Parisian fashions as interpreted by the French-Canadian designers of Montreal.

Some two hundred attended the artistically arranged exhibit yesterday, and gained the impression that there is a tendency toward black shoes in suede and patent leather. It is pointed out by the management that visitors are not obliged to purchase. The shoes are only on display, but should a visitor desire to purchase any shoe that might take her fancy, it can be bought, if in stock, or an order may be placed for it. Thus something that is exclusive and that embodies an individual idea may be secured.

Riv and fit are recorded in the company's blue book. Thus, when the patron again orders shoes she can secure those which fit her perfectly. The factory expert, who has been engaged for the exhibit, can at once determine the last which suits different feet and pass judgment on fit and size. Sizes range from four A, narrow, to four E, wide.

McPherson Trial Is Undignified Affair

FOR ANGLER, Oct. 5.—Deputy District Attorney Joe Ryan, from the witness stand at the preliminary hearing of Almae Semple McPherson, evangelist, on charge of criminal conspiracy, declared today it was his belief, after investigation of her story of having been kidnapped, that the religious leader of the Angelus Temple was a "fake." Ryan's frontal attack on the founder of the "Four Square" movement came at the end of two days' examination and cross-examination, which left little more to be exploited in the line of evidence. Defence Attorney W. J. Gifford, said

The deceased came to Victoria from the prairies some five or six years ago. His death is believed due to heart failure.

SHORTAGE OF LABOR TURNS FARMERS TO ELECTRIC MACHINES

TRENTON, N.J., Oct. 5.—"The serious shortage of farm labor has resulted in seeking of mechanical and electrical apparatus for crop production and harvesting," said William B. Duryea, secretary of the U.S. Department of Agriculture, today in announcing that the Department will survey the economic use of electricity in farm work.

The object of the study is to determine the extent to which electricity now is used in farm work and to learn its future possibilities. Direct information from farmers will form the basis of the survey.

Farm Needs Electricity—"There is a great field for electrical power on farms at reasonable rates, not only from an economical standpoint, but also in making the farm home a more desirable place of residence," said Mr. Duryea.

"The New Jersey survey will cover the principal producing areas of New Jersey, including the dairy, fruit and vegetable sections and general farming areas. Data will be secured regarding the economy of the farm, source of power, farm illumination in house, barn, poultry houses, the heating units used, the amount of wood sawing, grain grinding, pumping and milking done by electricity and the total energy utilized. One large New Jersey farm recently has installed an electrically-driven machine for the curing of hay.

Farmers Overlook Possibilities—"Of the 30,000 farms in New Jersey less than 5,000 reported the use of gas or electricity in the 1925 Federal census. This very small proportion is the more surprising in view of the fact that many of the farms are

Mr. Robert Forke Has Little to Announce

BRANDON, Oct. 5.—Hon. Robert Forke, Minister of Immigration and Federal member elect for Brandon, was a guest of honor tonight at a banquet, following his return from Ottawa.

Mr. Forke said that, while he would do his utmost for Western Canada to secure immigrants at the same time he would have to keep in mind the interests of the whole Dominion. He referred particularly to the Maritime Provinces, which he said, could absorb many immigrants.

Mr. Forke stated that he was most optimistic in regard to immigration and that he had no doubt that a great influx of immigrants could be expected as a result of "a more aggressive immigration policy." He stated, however, that he had no revolutionary immigration policy to announce.

Lift out Corn—root and all

Cutting corns, or using a so-called corn solvent is useless. You have probably tried and know yourself how the corn comes back again painful as ever in a week or less. The only satisfactory way to deal with an obstinate corn is to take a Radox Foot Bath once or twice; you can lift the whole corn out with your fingers.

How Radox Bath Salts Remove Corns

When you put your feet into a foot-bath containing Radox, the salts soften the hard outer layers of the corn and the dead skin (of the corn) combines with the Radox Bath Salts to form a protein salt of the actual corn itself. This dissolves in the water and so loosens the corn that it can be lifted out bodily.

The Radox Bath Salt does not attack the living skin; it softens and refreshes it; it cannot dissolve it. It is only the dead skin—the corn—which it dissolves. There is nothing left to ache; the corn is bodily removed and the feet are left clean and healthy.

A Radox enthusiast writes: "My wife tried plasters, salves, salts and soda to try and move her corn which has nearly driven her mad the last three months; but they moved neither the corn nor the pain. We saw an advertisement showing a corn being pulled out. We sent for the Radox Bath Salts at 6 o'clock, and at twenty minutes to seven my wife was pulling the corn out, after years of agony. It is worth $20 a package."

AUSTRIAN PLANS AIR DASH TO SOUTH POLE

Anton Pauly, Engineer and Explorer, Plans to Land on Wandel Island as Primary Base

BUENOS AIRES, Oct. 4.—Organization of a South Pole expedition, to be initiated this month, is announced here by Anton Pauly, an Austrian engineer and explorer, whose intention is to conduct the first aerodrome trip to the bottom of the earth.

Pauly plans to start from Buenos Aires in a sailing ship near the end of the month in order to make the coast of Graham Land about the middle of November. According to plan, the ship will land the expedition on Wandel Island at sixty-five degrees south latitude, where the primary base of operations will be established.

The next step will be the establishment of another base ten degrees farther south. Eight trips by aeroplane are calculated to be sufficient to transfer food and fuel supplies to this point which will be 300 miles nearer the pole. Following the establishment of this last base the party will digress temporarily from its prime goal to make exploration in the Weddell Sea and to Chacot Land.

Following these explorations a final preparatory move will be made to a point at eighty degrees south latitude, 600 miles nearer the pole than the previous base. This point is calculated to have an altitude of 4,000 feet above sea level and from there the flyers will make their dash to the South Pole, a flight of 600 miles.

To Seek Messages
According to Pauly's statement, the Pole is a plateau 10,000 feet high. He states: "We will stop at the Pole long enough to make necessary observations and to try to find messages left there by Captain Scott in 1922. We shall then continue the flight to Wales Bay, where we hope to find the deposit left by Amundsen. This distance is about 560 miles, making the whole flight from our 80 degrees base nearly 1,300 miles."

In the actual flight across the polar region Pauly plans to carry two passengers besides himself, a pilot, observer and mechanic. Two months' food supplies and equipment for a sledge expedition to be used in case of accident to the plane will complete the cargo carried on the flight.

No time limit has been set for the expedition, which is expected to end at Melbourne, Australia. Pauly is confident of his success and is laying careful plans to insure against mistakes in preparation.

Pauly has long been associated in ventures of exploration and research. He is the author of several volumes on geographic conditions in little known parts of South America, and has long since established himself as a leading mining engineer in Chilean and Bolivian fields.

IMMIGRATION IS REVIVING AGAIN

Mr. Black Looks for a Very Large Increase During the Next Few Years
—From Good Sources

WINNIPEG, Man., Oct. 5.—"Since the beginning of the year there has been an increase of 45 per cent over last year in the number of immigrants brought to Canada by the Canadian National Railways," stated Mr. W. J. Black, director of immigration and colonization of the national system, who arrived in Winnipeg last night.

"The present condition of, and outlook for immigration to Canada is most hopeful," continued Mr. Black, "and I look for a very large increase in the number of these people who will make their homes on the farm lands of the Dominion in the next few years."

From North Europe and United States. Mr. Black also stated that the number of families from Northern European countries who have settled on land adjacent to the lines of the Canadian National Railways in Saskatchewan and Northern Alberta during the past two years has shown a decided increase over all previous years since the war, and that these families have cleared and broken more than 100,000 acres of land in that time.

He also pointed out that more than eighty families from the United States, all of them with experience and at least $2,000 cash capital each, have settled in Central Saskatchewan this year, and he expects this number will be increased to at least one hundred families before the close of the year.

COMOX COMPANY WINS IN COURT OF APPEAL

VANCOUVER, B.C., Oct. 5.—With Chief Justice Macdonald and Mr. Justice McPhillips dissenting on a full bench of judges, the Comox Logging and Railway Company won its appeal in the court of appeal sitting in Vancouver on Tuesday in the case of Higgins vs. Comox Logging & Railway Co.

The action was begun by Mr. A. L. Higgins and Chang Sing to recover damages caused by fire to their property through the alleged negligence of the defendant company's servants. Judgment was given by Mr. Justice Morrison in favor of the plaintiffs, the amount to be decided by a referee. This was subsequently placed at $1,132.50 for Higgins and $394 for Chang.

PROVINCIAL REFINERY ASKS FOR SYRUP DUTY

Duty on Imported Manufactures Should Not Be Lower Than on Raw Material Is Claim

OTTAWA, Oct. 5.—An application for an increase in the duty on imported corn and cane syrup was made today to the Advisory Board on Tariffs and Taxation by the British Columbia Sugar Refining Company.

Mr. J. F. W. Johnson, president of the company, stated that increase should be such as to put the duty on imported syrups on a parity with that paid by Canadian syrup manufacturers upon the raw materials utilized by them.

Not Asking Protection
"I am not asking for any protection on our product. All I ask is that the duty on syrups entering this country should not be a cent lower than my company has to pay on the raw material in the finished products."

If the tariff were changed so that the general tariff on syrups would not be below $1.95 per 100 pounds, it would, by increasing the selling price of foreign syrups, be a material help to us in increasing sales," he said. "I am quite right in saying that under a tariff such as I propose, American syrups coming into Canada could still undersell, because corn syrup is cheaper than cane syrup."

continent. Although the American Rose Society received the medal three years ago, it was not awarded until the present year, when it was given to the Experimental Farms in recognition of the merit of the Agnes Rose.

The Agnes Rose is a cross between Rosa Rugosa as the seed parent, and Persian Yellow as the pollen parent. The cross was made by the late Dr. William Saunders at the Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa, Canada, about the year 1900. It blooms in June in 1902 and has been under test at Ottawa ever since and although never protected during the winters, it has never been noticeably injured by the frosts. The flowers, double and pale amber in color, are borne singly and in great profusion. It is fragrant and blooms early, but only once in the season. Because of its extreme earliness and great hardiness and the distinct and attractive color of the flower, this variety should prove a valuable addition to the roses of the Rugosa group.

Fashions and Foibles

By Shirley Sharon

Fashion is a fluid thing and you can pour it into any mould. This season the width that has been added to other silhouettes in the way of plaits and flares suddenly disappears from the lower part of the coat to reappear above the hip. The easy width of the lower part make the new do-main cut. It is a very simple coat for a woman to make for herself for its soft drapery conceals inept workmanship. It is quite a practical coat in pile fabric, very smart in broadcloth and extremely elegant in moire, velvet and costing satins.

Home Economics Chair To Be Under Discussion

Sangster, both of this city. The bride was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. Jessie A. Plowman, and was charming in a frock of periwinkle blue crepe de Chine, trimmed with Irish cream lace, and picture hat. She carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses and carnations. Following the ceremony the couples left by automobile for California, and after the honeymoon will take up their residence in the city.

Brook-Slater-Cook-Clarke

Both brides entered the church to the strains of the wedding march, played by Mr. Arnett. The couples attended each other. During the signing of the register Miss Jessie Ferguson sang "At Dawning."

Your Most Becoming Colors

By DOROTHY STOTE

The Pale Blonde

For Street Wear—The woman whose hair is light and who has little or no natural coloring has a real problem in her coloring, for not only must she avoid colors that make her complexion completely flat but her hair also must be wary of the too delicate shades that tend to neutralize her personality and give her a "washed-out" appearance.

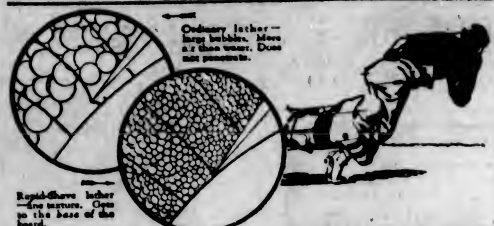

Since she inclines to pallor, she will probably want to offset this and at the same time she will want to take her hair into consideration. Like all pale types, she will find that green, in which lurks the complementary red that emphasizes flesh tints, is a very wise selection. The new "shutter green" should mean for her, provided it is not too dark in tone. Her four best daytime colors for street wear are:

Good
Pale or medium green.
Bluish green (light)
Henna or terra cotta
Fern (grey green)
Blue eyes are most successfully complemented by the two colors given first.

The pale blonde type is restricted in her choice of colors, and for harmony is denied a number of tones:

Avoid
Red
Dark green
Venetian fuchsia
Yellow
Violet
Clear, strong blue
And all vivid, shrill colors

There are certain women who by emphasizing some physical characteristic, emerge as unusual types, to whom we generally apply such original names as bizarre or strikingly original. Unless she be of such persuasion, the pale blonde should not wear all black, for it heightens her pallor and absorbs any luminous quality she may possess.

Tackles 'em Low!

The beard line hasn't a chance—it's always a quick, easy win for Colgate's Rapid-Shave Cream.

Soon as play begins, Rapid-Shave gets LOW—goes right down to it, and softens the beard morale right at the base, so that when Razor comes through, it takes the stubbly opposition clean off its feet without the slightest pull or jerk.

Look at Rapid-Shave lather, and you'll see why. Fine texture—no froth, but millions of tiny, penetrating bubbles that soften the beard better because they hold water, not air-spaces against the hair.

A paper says that on the whole women are more careful drivers than men. And yet we know so many women who have a reputation for running down their neighbors.

Miss Slater wore a smart gown of sun-ray georgette over silk vandyke, trimmed with roses and satin ribbon, and a picture hat to match, and carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses and carnations.

Miss Clarke was charmingly attired in a picturesque bouffant gown fashioned of rose and silver shot tulle, and silk net trimmed with silver ribbon and leaves and hand-made satin flowers, and picture hat to match. She carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses and carnations.

Following the ceremony the couples left by automobile for California, and after the honeymoon will take up their residence in the city.

Fashion Fancies

By Marie Belmont

Various shades of green come in for fashion prominence this Fall, and important among them is the gray-green shade exploited in fine French wool crepe above.

This material is light in weight and lends itself to pleasing and the smart, seamed treatments that are used for Fall. The frock shown here is made on tailored lines, with pleats stitched down almost to the hem at the sides and covered buttons all the way down the front.

Black wool crepe or rep, wine-red wool crepe or a smart shade of brown would be equally effective.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS AIDS CHILD WELFARE

Miss Charlotte Whitton Addresses
Larger Gathering at Memorial Hall
Under Auspices of I.O.D.E.

Speaking at the Memorial Hall last evening under the auspices of the Municipal Chapter, I.O.D.E., Miss Charlotte Whitton told of some of the tremendous achievements of the League of Nations in various branches of world problems, with special reference to the interests of child welfare work.

Miss Whitton, in dealing with the question of the peace plan of the League in comparison with the question of war, said: "The League realizes that war sought its justification through its violent means, that its aim was to make a distinct appeal to the people of the world throughout history, the purging and cleansing of the world, done much, but through humanitarian ideals the League is seeking even greater expression."

Work of I.L.O.
The International Labor Office had done much in the interests of women and children, and in 1925 the Child Welfare Committee had been formed. Assessors and delegates had been appointed, and it had been as the as-sessor representing Canada that Miss Whitton had been present at the Geneva conference.

Miss Whitton paid tribute to the ability of Miss Lathrop, of the United States, and to her contribution to child welfare work. All the great countries and many of the smaller states of the world were working together with the interests of the child at heart, Miss Whitton stated. She cited Mussolini's welfare pro-gramme in Italy, where he has formed a National Child Welfare Board, which is having valuable ef-fects throughout the country. Local, district and traveling clinics had been established there, and the protection of mothers and children was being given special attention. In other European countries—in Norway, Sweden and Belgium—child welfare work had reached a place of para-mount importance. Norway in par-ticular had laid great stress upon the necessity of aid and care for crippled children.

Mental Defectives
With regard to the question of mental defectives, "Canada ranks very low," Miss Whitton declared. "In her observation schools, Belgium has worked out an experiment in connection with mental problems which is working admirably." These schools were staffed by trained psychologists, who watched each boy or girl inmate suffering from any sort of mental trouble, reported upon each case and finally provided the proper remedies for each child. As a result of these schools Belgium was recording the greatest decrease in juvenile delin-quency. "We cannot hope to have progress if we ignore one of the greatest danger spots which con-fronts us today," added the speaker, urging her hearers to give special thought to this branch of welfare work.

Canada's Noble Heritage
"If we cannot hold together the British commonwealth of nations," Miss Whitton emphasized in her concluding remarks, "if there cannot be a uniting influence felt among the free states of the British Empire, then there can be no hope of ulti-mate peace. Let us follow in the steps of those early pioneers, those forerunners of our country, who saw the vision of a glorious future made more glorious by their deeds, suffer-ings, hardships and ideals. We have a heritage to be proud of—surely it is worth carrying on the high responsibility entrusted to our charge. And by the courage of our living we may be worthy of the sacrifice of those who have gone before."

Mrs. J. H. Gillespie, regent of the Municipal Chapter, I.O.D.E., moved a hearty vote of thanks to Miss Whitton for her most interesting address, adding that her words would be an "inspiration to the order of which she was so true a member."

The platform was arranged with beautiful flowers and Autumn leaves, the standards of the primary chap-ers providing a brilliant note of color against the dark curtain background.

NEWS OF THE SPORTING WORLD

St. Louis Cardinals Take Lead in Race For Baseball Honors

Haines Gains Glory by Blanking the Champion Yankees and Knocking Sensational Homer to Cap the Climax—Four to Nothing the Score in Third Game of World's Series at St. Louis

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 5.—The rugged figure of Jesse Haines was cast in heroic mold today to celebrate the homecoming of the Cardinals with a dramatic victory over the Yankees in the greatest diamond spectacle St. Louis has ever witnessed.

Standing out in bold relief against a background of a record-breaking crowd, Haines not only blanked the American League champions with five scattered hits, but hammered out a home run that capped the climax of the Cardinals' decisive batting attack in the fourth inning.

A Record Crowd
A vast and colorful throng of close to 30,000 spectators, the largest and most enthusiastic crowd that ever jammed Sportsman's Park, saw Haines subdue the Yanks with a 4-0 triumph in the third game of the intercontinental battle. It was a stirring victory, the climax of a twenty-four hour outburst of unprecedented home town spirit and put the Cards in the lead two games to one in the struggle for premier baseball honors.

Victory by any margin would have been thrilling to this big outpouring today, but it was satisfied even beyond its keenest expectations by the brilliance of Haines' pitching, the mighty power of his bat and the all-around dash with which the Cards demonstrated their superiority over their New York rivals, while Haines was turning in a masterpiece. Fit companion feat to Alexander's triumph on Sunday over the Yankees, the Cardinals outplayed the Yanks in every department of the game. They had the punch when it meant runs and they fielded with the precision that cut off the few threats by the invaders.

Dutch Reuther, veteran southpaw, tried to check the onward surge of the Cardinals with his crossfire, but he lasted less than five innings, yielding the mound to Red Shawkey after being shelled for seven hits and four runs.

It was an occasion built for victory by Rogers Hornsby and his rampant Red Birds.

All-Night Celebration
The big crowd though dwarfed by the throngs that witnessed the first two games in New York, yielded to no rivals in spirit. It came to cheer a Card triumph after an all-night celebration of the home team's victory from the East and it wasn't disappointed in the climax. If anything, the National League champions outdid themselves, spurred on as they were by this splendid demonstration of support. They had every incentive to win, and they did it with such decisiveness that there isn't a St. Louis fan who doesn't already have prepared for a final flourish that will celebrate the winning of the world's championship.

Two victories more will clinch the title for the Cards and the form they have displayed in the last two games, contrasting sharply with the almost listless performance of their opponents has greatly strengthened their prospects for the final triumph. In three games the American League champions, supposedly one of the hardest-hitting outfits of the season, have produced only fifteen hits and four runs. Not one of their blows has been for extra bases, while the Cards have been walloping the ball to all corners of the field.

The intermittent showers of rain threatened to mar the setting for the triumph of Hornsby's men. The game was delayed for the start of the fourth inning by a sudden shower, but heroic efforts put the field back into playable condition, muddy though it was. It was a fortunate break, for the Cardinals had back after the interval to catch a budding Yankee rally and then score the runs that clinched the game.

Slippery Ball
There was another contributing factor in this decisive inning, for the slippery condition of the ball was at least partly to blame for a wild throw by Mark Koenig, Yankee shortstop, who had a double play in sight that would have choked off the Cards without a run.

Leiter Bell opened the fourth with a single and went to second on Haines' sacrifice bunt. O'Farrell walked, and then Thevenow repped a hard grounder to Lazzari, who scooped it up and tossed to Koenig for a force-out. O'Farrell, the Yank shortstop, threw wildly past Gehrig, however, and Bell raced home with the first run. This set the stage for Haines, and the husky pitcher provoked a tumultuous outburst by lifting one of Reuther's curves high into the right field stands.

It was a towering blow, worthy of a Ruth or a Southworth, and Haines trotted around the bases to the accompaniment of a bedlam of cheering, ringing of bells and honking of horns. To all intent and purpose, this settled the game as it turned out, but the Cards added another run for good measure in the fourth, Southworth scoring on his single, another one base blow by Hornsby and an infield out by Bottomley which marked the retirement of Reuther. With this margin to work on, Haines tied the rest of the game with invincible skill. In no inning were the Yankees able to get more than one safe hit, and in none of them did a base runner get beyond the Keystone bag.

Double Plays
Twice snappy double plays checked the Yanks, once in the sixth after Combs had led off with a single, and again in the ninth, as a finishing gesture, when Gehrig singled with one out.

Joe Dugan started the third with a single and sacrificed to second by Severid, but got no farther. In the fourth, just before the downpour came, Ruth was on the middle bag by virtue of his one-base hit to center and Meusel's infield out.

Forging Ahead in Fight for the World's Honors

ROGERS Hornsby and some of his merry men who were particularly conspicuous and valuable in the winning of the National League pennant by the St. Louis Cardinals and have now taken the lead in the race for the honors of the world's series, having so far won two games to one for the Yankees of the American League.

called. The groundkeepers rushed upon the field, dragging tarpaulins after them. The batter's box was covered, and when Thevenow's bat was put under canvas, the players scurried to the dugouts, while the grandstands ruled umbrellas and shrouded themselves with newspapers.

It was a heavy downpour and it looked as if the field would soon be impossible to continue playing. Lazzari, however, called a high fly to O'Farrell, which he took near the baseline. Lazzari went out, Hornsby to Bottomley. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Fifth Inning
Yankees—Dugan sent out a long fly to Haines. Severid sent out a sharp liner to Southworth. Reuther up. Haines took Reuther's hot shot. The Yanks were hitting the first ball pitched. No runs, no hits, no errors.

St. Louis—Southworth singled past Dugan. Hornsby up. Shawkey was now warming up again. Hornsby Yankees—Gehrig shot a single over Thevenow's head. Koenig hit into a double play. Hornsby to Thevenow to Bell threw out Lazzari at first. Gehrig went to second. It was not a sacrifice. Dugan filed out to Douthitt. Gehrig holding second. Severid up. Bell threw out Severid at first. No runs, one hit, no errors.

St. Louis—Douthitt fanned, the third strike being called. Southworth up. Lazzari took Southworth's roller and tossed him out. Hornsby popped to Lazzari, going after a low curve. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Eighth Inning
Yankees—Pachal, batting for Shawkey, walked. Combs up. Hornsby by cut over and talked to Haines. O'Farrell also went down to the box to steady the Cardinal pitcher. Combs struck out, missing a drop curve by a foot. Koenig grounded out to Bottomley. Pachal making second on the play. Ruth up. The crowd laughed when Ruth went after a slow ball. It was growing dark again and a shower threatened. Hornsby threw out Ruth at first. No runs, no hits, no errors.

St. Louis—Thomas went into the box for the Yankees. Bottomley up. It started to rain again. Bottomley singled into right. Bell was trying to sacrifice. Bell hit a double. Koenig to Lazzari at first. Haines went out. Dugan to Gehrig. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Yankees—Meusel went out. Bell to Bottomley. Gehrig up. Haines was using blinding speed in the falling light. Gehrig got a sharp single to right for his second hit of the game. Lazzari hit into a double play. Thevenow to Bottomley. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Victoria Eleven Will Stay in Coast League

Executive Decides to "Carry On"—Lack of Ground Causes Postponement of Saturday's Fixture With St. Andrews

All rumors that the Victoria City soccer club would turn back their franchise to the Pacific Coast League and throw their hands up in despair faded away last night at a meeting of the club held in the Army and Navy board room. Discussions concerning finance, players and the general effect of the dropping out of the Pacific Coast League took up plenty of time, but after the debate had ceased it was the unanimous decision of the gathering that the Victoria City Football Club would "carry on."

This decision will be welcome to the fans who have in the past shown that they are behind a Pacific Coast team in this city. An appeal to the local teams for players has been fruitless, but in spite of all reverses, the men behind this movement are confident that they can put the club over the top.

The secretary revealed that there were twelve or thirteen players on the books and the officials are always on the lookout for new players.

This week St. Andrew's team of Vancouver were due to visit this city for a league fixture, but as no grounds were available the city team tried to make arrangements to travel to the Mainland. Long distance telephone communication to Vancouver was carried out with the result that the Victoria City club was informed that as there were no grounds available in Vancouver the only move was to postpone the fixture.

On Monday next the Victoria City Football Club will hold a meeting at the Army and Navy board room, when further moves will be made to assist in making the club a successful venture.

During the Old 'Un's brief retirement into private life the third of the trio of champions defending their titles during the month of September lost life.

Jack Dempsey can no longer claim to be the heavyweight champion pugilist of the Universe what time he loafs around, has a good time, acies in the seascapes—box garden, should say movies—and avoids the ring like the plague.

We had a hunch that it had to be three—TILDEN, JONES and DEMPSEY. And few people—except the poor, misguided ones who bet on him, will have been sorry to see the last-mentioned defeated.

He was through as a fighter several years ago, as we remarked, and just came back to "fill his fists with a final fortune," as we expected he would.

The fight game should be due for a big revival now. It usually is when a new heavyweight king is crowned, especially when the dethroned one has been inactive for so long.

Speaking of champions reminds us of a rather more pleasant subject. Right here at home a new champion has arisen in ladies' golf in the last few days. Just a day or two late we hope the young lady will accept the Old 'Un's congratulations.

The name of WILSON has loomed large for many years herabouts in the golfing world and it is gaining additional lustre very rapidly just now.

THE OLD 'UN WOULD NOT BE AT ALL SURPRISED IF VICTORIA WERE THE HOME OF BOTH THE LADY TENNIS CHAMPION OF CANADA AND THE LADY GOLF OF CANADA WITHIN A VERY SHORT TIME.

The lady who has had to make way for a new champion this year has been a very worthy holder of the title. She has been a splendid example of how to play the game (technically and otherwise) to many a newer hand at the Royal and Ancient Pastime, and in defeat she showed them what it meant to be a good loser.

Overheard on the links:
"Good shot, Bill, that's laying them dead!"
"Thanks, Jim, but I don't think that ball's as near the pin as I think it is!"

"Well, we always understood that golf was supposed to be a Scotch game originally, but, love yer, there's lots of good Irishmen who are good golfers, too."

SAN FRANCISCO WINS HEAVY HITTING GAME

Sacramento Uses Three Pitchers in Effort to Stop Seals—Plenty of Errors Feature Play

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 5.—San Francisco hopped on Rachao and Keating for a 13-6 victory over the Sacramento Senators in the series opener here today. W. Canfield relieved Keating in the sixth inning and stopped the visitors' rally. Fifteen players were used by the Senators.

Arlett hit a homer with two on base in the first inning and Caveney helped in the scoring with three safeties.

The Angels, this year's pennant winners, also contributed to their own defeat with three glaring errors.

NEW LABORATORY IS READY AT M'GILL

Equipment for Department of Civil Engineering Includes Many Kinds of Machines

MONTREAL, Oct. 5.—Work which has been going on for more than a year in the construction of an hydraulic laboratory in the McGill department of civil engineering has recently been completed. It was stated by S. D. MacNab in charge of the testing laboratories yesterday.

With an equipment costing in the neighborhood of $15,000 the hydro-lic laboratory will be completely available for use by the coming session. During the past term, it was partially used in connection with the course in civil engineering.

The room for the installation of equipment was made available through the recent addition to the electrical engineering laboratories by funds provided by a number of the electrical engineering companies in the city.

Among the apparatus is a tank for measuring the impact of jets on vanes, centrifugal pumps of different types are included, along with a fifteen horse-power experimental turbine, the water for which is circulated by a pump and motor with suitable equipment for accurate measurement of the discharge. An experimental pipe line for determining losses of head through bends and valves, and a sixty-foot flume and equipment for notch experiments further fortify the apparatus. Eight tanks and gauges complete the equipment.

The hydraulic laboratory marks the second laboratory to be completed within the last month in the McGill engineering building.

The department of mechanical engineering boasts a new laboratory, including in its equipment a heavy diesel aeroplane engine with a water-Froude brake, testing-bases, which are used in testing the various types of internal combustion and a suction gas producing plant, along with every type of internal combustion engine known to mechanical engineering. A great deal of the old equipment has been rebuilt and modernized where it was found to be advantageous.

The Faculty of Applied Science, although not scheduled to open until the last of the month, has been a scene of the first academic activity since September 1, with a Summer School being conducted for third year students in mechanical engineering which opened on that date, followed by a school in surveying and geodesy.

PROGRESS IS MADE IN TEA INDUSTRY

Statistics Reveal Growth During Period 1914-24—Good Prices at India Tea Sales

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—Due mainly to British enterprise, the tea plantation industry has progressed considerably in recent years, in spite of the vagaries of climatic conditions, labor supply, and incidentally, the caprices of the public.

This progress can be seen, according to advices just received by Bankers Trust Company of New York from its British Information Service from the fact that the total British imports from India, Ceylon, China, the Dutch India and other countries in 1913 were 365,948,464 pounds, valued at £12,782,995, while in 1924 total imports were $10,498,- 777 pounds, valued at £40,448,996.
Re-exports in these two years were $7,556,451 pounds, valued at £1,- 268,940 and 75,878,080 pounds, valued at £6,947,619 in 1913 and 1924, respectively. In 1925 total imports at 491,021,542, which were valued at £27,532,328, were slightly lower than in the previous year, although re-exports at $8,585,844 pounds, valued at £7,854,262 were somewhat higher.

Statistics show that of thirteen selected companies only four secured larger crops in 1925 than in 1924.
This fact, together with increased costs, resulted in smaller net profits for most of these concerns. The annual analytical chart, dealing with sixty-five representative Indian companies, yielding a crop of nearly 179 million pounds, shows that the average price realized during 1925 was 1s. 7d. per pound, compared with 1s. 7d. last year, costs rose from 11½d. in 1924 to 1s. 4½d. in the year under review, and the profit per pound decreased from 7½d. in 1924 to 4½d. in 1925.

Yields on tea shares are generally high, which fact is ascribed to the speculative nature of the industry.
It is believed, however, that the Indian monsoon has been favorable and as a result satisfactory prices are being obtained at this season's Indian tea sales.

The Greater Canada of Tomorrow

EVERY day is bringing some marvelous new application of electricity into the making of which have gone years of research and experiment.

Electro-metallurgy and electro-chemistry have already rendered it possible to handle materials not workable by any other means, of which we may mention: aluminium, chromium, silicon, calcium carbide, cyanide, carborundum; and have greatly cheapened the production of many important materials of wide use, such as: alkalis, phosphorus, hypochlorite, magnesium, sodium nitrate.

Great developments have recently taken place in the production of electrolytic copper and zinc, and in processes of the electric smelting and refining of ores.

Information

Canada has developed water power to about one-tenth of the world's total. Only one country (Norway) has greater per capita water power development, yet only 8.4% of Canada's power resources are now used.

BRITISH STEAMER IS CAUGHT IN HURRICANE

Captain of Narenta Says Storm Was Most Terrible—Black Cat, Ship's Mascot, Fancied Stricken

The crew of the British steamship Narenta, which is docked at Vancouver and which will sail from that port on October 11 to the United Kingdom, went through a thrilling adventure during the recent Florida hurricane, according to a story in The Portland Oregonian.

According to the story the Narenta was struck by the hurricane 300 miles northeast of Porto Rico, and it blew at a rate of from 120 to 130 miles an hour. Huge breakers broke over the ship, injuring two seamen, John Welch and William Ash.

The hurricane blew incessantly for several hours, then abated for about an hour, and then commenced again from the opposite direction. Captain A. G. Miles said the blow was one of the worst he had ever experienced. The story quoted the ship's mate, Gulf Islands Winter Service—Effective Monday, September 27, the steamer Otter will leave Victoria every Monday at 7:15 a.m., and Wednesday at 3 a.m., for Ganges Harbor and way points, returning to Victoria on Tuesday and Saturday. There will also be the service from Victoria every Tuesday at 11 a.m., calling at Port Washington, Ganges and Mayne Island. For further information phone 1370 or 131 or 2822.

DENMAN ISLAND LOSES PIONEER

OLD-TIME RESIDENT, "ABE" PICKLES, PAIRS TO SURVIVE STROKE

Mr. Pickles Was Among Pioneers of Island—Tree Planted Fifty Years Ago Flourish

DENMAN ISLAND, Oct. 4.—Old-timers on Vancouver Island will regret the death at Westminster of Mr. "Abe" Pickles, of Denman, who was stricken down whilst walking the street of Union Bay, some few weeks ago. Mr. Pickles, who is sixty-nine years of age, never rallied from the stroke, and he was received yesterday by his death. The body was brought to Union Bay on Wednesday, transferred by launch to Denman Island, and there service will be conducted in the picturesque burial ground, where he will be laid to rest by the side of his wife, who died some eighteen years ago.

Mr. Abram Pickles was a familiar figure in the district, leaving York, England, some fifty years ago, he came to Denman when he was only about five other families there, and numbers of Indians. He pre-empted his farm, which he has worked ever since, and every week he rowed across to Union Bay to dispose of his eggs, chickens, fruit or fish. Fifty years ago "Abe" planted some seeds of the Yorkshire "ash" which he brought over with him, and today these trees give an additional touch to his farm. He also helped to survey most of the land on Denman Island as the settlers came and the Indians disappeared. Today, Denman Island claims the record for automobiles per mile of road, possessing thirty cars, and fifteen miles of road, and a population of about 250. Considering that all cars on the island, or visiting, have to be loaded on a scow at Hurley Bay, and then towed to the landing stage at Denman, by either Captain A. Graham or Captain Handy Swan, it will be seen that times have greatly changed since "Abe" first set foot on the island a half century ago.

He is survived by his son, Harry, who has worked the farm with his father.

COL. F. A. ROBERTSON TO SPEAK TO VETERANS

Soldiers' Reunion Dinner Is Planned in Duncan to Be Held on November 12

DUNCAN, Oct. 5.—There was a good attendance at last night's meeting of the Cowichan branch of the Canadian Legion, with the president, Mr. J. H. C. Frank, in the chair. It was resolved to hold a public meeting of ex-service men on October 22, which will be addressed by Col. F. A. Robertson, of the B.C. Players Also Receive Medals Presented by Dominion Football Association

CUMBERLAND, Oct. 5.—Well over two hundred citizens of Cumberland were in attendance at the annual banquet held in the Band Hall for the purpose of presenting the members of the Canadian Collegiate Football team with the gold rings, a gift from Cumberland residents, and with the medals presented by the D.F.A., these latter being the team's award as runner-up in the recent Dominion championship. The Band Hall was comfortably filled, and the evening was made more enjoyable by the distribution of smoked, sandwiches and other refreshments.

The concert which preceded the presentation was a brilliant one and merited the generous applause given. Those taking part were: The Cumberland Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. C. W. Edwards; Messrs. H. Goodall, W. Jackson, H. L. Bates, H. Jackson, Ed. Morris, Gomer Harding, S. Robertson and Watkin Williams.

Mr. Thomas Graham, general superintendent of the Canadian Collegiate Football League, presented the rings and medals to the various players, at the same time congratulating them individually on their achievements. Mr. Graham then handed back to football twenty-five years ago, mentioning the Lewis and Clarke expedition in Portland, where Lady Smith carried off the prize of the game. Football was good in those days, the speaker said, but he could not be convinced that it was better than the brand played on the island today. The speaker then referred to the recent Dominion championship, Mr. Graham said that the Canadian Collegiate Football League was good in those days, the speaker said, but he could not be convinced that it was better than the brand played on the island today. ## Would Extend Privilege of Payment To Municipal Areas

DUNCAN, Oct. 5.—Councillor Rivett-Carnac, of Chemainus, presided at yesterday's meeting of the North Cowichan Council, owing to the absence of Reeve Evans through illness. It was reported that the Reeve's collection is greatly improved, although it will be some time yet before he can resume his duties at the Council Chambers.

The following resolution relating to the matter of delinquent taxes was unanimously adopted: "Whereas the Provincial Government recognized the justice of the request of the United Farmers of B.C., and amended in 1925 the Provincial Tax Act, whereby the farmer in unorganized districts now has up to October 31 in each year for paying his taxes without penalty; and

"Whereas the Municipal Act does not permit the Council to give similar relief; be it resolved "That the Council support the request made by the United Farmers and the Cowichan Agricultural Society for such amendments to the Municipal Act as will enable the Council in organized districts on the same footing as those in unorganized districts."

The offer of the Provincial Government of 1925 for the motorcycle formerly used by the now defunct municipal police force was accepted by the Council.

SPEAKS ON WELFARE WORK IN NANAIMO

Miss Charlotte Whitton Visits Various Organizations During Island Tour

NANAIMO, Oct. 5.—Miss Charlotte Whitton, of Ottawa, addressed a representative audience of various women's organizations in the Masonic Hall last evening. Miss Whitton dealt exhaustively with child welfare work in Canada and other countries, using as a setting its contact with the League of Nations and the difficult problems to be solved by the way it must operate if it is to effect world peace.

Upon arrival in Nanaimo yesterday, Miss Whitton was the guest of honor at a luncheon tendered by the executive of the Public Health Nursing Council. Following the luncheon, she addressed the members of the council, outlining the health programme of the Canadian National Child Welfare Council. After the luncheon and address, Miss Whitton visited the baby clinic at the rest room and was enthusiastically in her praise of the public health work established in Nanaimo.

In the afternoon Miss Whitton gave an inspiring talk to local members of the I.O.G.E. She spoke of the usefulness and splendid co-operative work of the I.O.G.E. in the making of layettes to help along the work of the Public Health Nurse, providing fresh air camps and outdoor play for children, and contributing to a better childhood for the Canadians of tomorrow.

INTERESTING DEBATES OCCUPY SOCIETY

Y.P.S. of South Saanich United Church Debates Equivalent Wages for Seamen

KEATING, Oct. 5.—The Young People's Society of the South Saanich United Church held their regular monthly meeting in the church parlor on Monday evening, when Miss C. MacNab presided and Miss Ida Heyer read the minutes and the treasurer's report.

During a short business session it was decided that, as the next meeting on October 13 would be in charge of the social committee, it should take the form of a Halloween social. If arrangements can be made this affair will be held at the Temperance Hall and all young people in the district. Fancy dress costumes will be compulsory, and other arrangements for the affair will be in charge of Misses Margaret, Ida, and Alma Heyer, Christie MacNab and Lola Lawrie.

As the meeting after the business session was in charge of the social committee, Miss Alma Heyer, who arranged an impromptu debate, the subject of which was "Resolved, that women should have equivalent wages to men occupying the same positions." Miss Ida Heyer, Mr. Roy Heyer and Mr. Albert Heyer, who argued in the affirmative, won the debate from the negative team, Miss Margaret, Miss Ida, and Miss Alma Heyer, and Mr. W. Tesson, after a very keen argument. Miss Ida Heyer then gave an interesting paper on "The Life of Shakespeare." Games were then played and refreshments were served by Mr. Albert Heyer and Mr. Roy Heyer.

The next rehearsal for the play "All on Account of Polly" which will be held at the church on Wednesday evening, October 6. The date for the presentation of the play will probably be set then.

The next meeting in charge of the intellectual committee will be on December 4, and a debate will be held, the subject of which is "Resolved that liquor is of greater menace to the state than war." The affirmative will be upheld by Miss Ida Lawrie and Mr. W. Hawke, while the negative will be argued by Miss Janet Sherring and Mr. S. Stoddart.

COUNCIL RECEIVES REPORT ON WATER

COURTESY REDUCES LIGHT AND POWER RATES, BASED ON SLIDING SCALE

Boat Service to Adjoining Island Centres Discussed by Council, and Courtesy River Navigation

COURTESY, Oct. 5.—At the regular meeting of the City Council on Monday night those present were Mayor J. W. McKenna and Aldermen E. L. Macdonald, William Douglas, Fred Field and E. Lloyd. There were two applications for city lots which had recently reverted to the city. Mrs. A. E. Harvey offered $20 for lot number two on the Lake Trail, and on motion of Aldermen Field and Macdonald the offer was accepted.

Mr. John Thompson offered $100 for the lot adjoining his property on the same road and his offer was accepted without hesitation. The various accounts were dealt with in the usual manner and referred to the finance committee to be paid if found correct.

Alderman Douglas, chairman of the works committee, submitted a report showing work done since his last report. It had been agreed to construct an extra twenty feet of sidewalk on Isabel Street in front of the Joseph Block, the cost being shared with the owner of the property. Drains had been deepened and hoard sidewalks repaired. He had been promised by the district assessor that all city streets would be graded during the next week or so. An itemized statement of work done by the city trucks was also handed in.

WILL CONTINUE

Reducing in Light Charges

In his report for the electric light committee, Alderman Macdonald recommended a reduction in the charge for both light and power. This would reduce the light charge from fourteen cents to ten cents per kilowatt hour and the power rate from seven to six cents, both on a sliding scale. Instead of twenty per cent discount being allowed those who pay their electric account promptly, ten per cent will in future be the allowance.

The recommendation was put to the council in form of a motion and was unanimously carried. It was pointed out amid laughter to Alderman Douglas, whose residence is just within the city limits, that the new reduced rates will apply only to consumers within the city. "That's fair enough," said Alderman Douglas. Alderman Field reported progress for the finance committee.

The matter of supply of city water at the wharf for boats using this port was brought up by Alderman Lloyd, who thought that boats of a certain type should be supplied free of charge.

The city clerk reported an application from Merville, through Mr. J. H. Smith, for a new electric light system. These are within a quarter of a mile of the present line and the proposed consumers would probably consent to erect the necessary extra poles. This would mean an additional revenue of $100 a year for the electric department. The matter was referred to Alderman Macdonald, chairman of the department.

City Weigh Scales

The city clerk reported that all was in readiness for the installation of the city weigh scales and that this work was being commenced in the morning. The weighers were being sent from Victoria.

A report was read from Mr. Cecil Smith, who had been commissioned to follow Browns River from its source at Goose Lake for the purpose of proving the city water supply. The report was quite satisfactory. Mr. Smith stated that the river had been capable of carrying a large body of water, owing to its high banks throughout its course.

The report of the Provincial Police as affecting the city of Courtenay for September was also read by the city clerk.

Application was made by Messrs. Blunt & Partners for permission to erect a canopy over the sidewalk at their new gasoline service station. Permission was granted subject to removal if notified by the city.

Retaining Wall

The matter of building a retaining wall and installing a permanent co-mond drain at Isabel Street, at the rear of the Canadian Bank of Commerce property, was discussed. All the aldermen present expressed themselves as being strongly in favor of the work being done, and the item, which is important but which would not incur a great deal of expense, will probably be included in the estimates for the coming year. This would greatly improve the street at this point. On inquiry, it was pointed out that work on the Comox water extension was practically at a standstill at the present time owing to Mr. W. J. Hagarty, who is in charge of the work, having had the misfortune to get blood poisoning in the hand.

Contracts between the water company and the proposed consumers at Comox are being prepared, however. Boat service between Hornby Island, Powell River and other points, and conditions of navigation in the Courtenay River were discussed before the Council adjourned.

"Beau Geste"

A Great Mystery Story

By PERCIVAL CHRISTOPHER WREN

George Lawrence meets an old friend, Major Beau de Geste. The latter tells him a strange story. He had taken a command of men to rescue the lonely fort at Zinderneuf, and on arriving there finds all men within dead—but propped in the armchairs. Inside he finds a commandant killed and in his hand a note, signed by Michael Geste, admitting the theft of the "Blue Water," a valuable sapphire, owned by Lady Brandon. The note is dated a month later than the body of the commandant, and the fort is set on fire. George Lawrence, who knows Lady Brandon well, immediately goes to her estate in England to find out what the mystery is, and whether the "Blue Water" actually has been stolen. At their meeting, Lady Brandon reveals her direct question, but he learns that Michael has disappeared, and he senses that something tragic has happened to the Brandon heir. He leaves, and the story now shifts to part two, wherein the author begins to unravel "the mystery of the 'Blue Water'."

I believe Michael made a really excellent job of digging out the bullet and dressing the wound. Of course, the ball had not penetrated very deeply, or a penknife would hardly have been the appropriate surgical tool, but, as things were, a doctor could not have done the very much quicker, nor the healing of the wound more clean and rapid.

And when the bandage was fastened, the Captain, in the presence of the whole band and some temporary members, visitors, raised me to the seventh heaven of joy and pride by solemnly conferring upon me in perpetuity the rank and title of Stout Pella, in that I had shed on tear and uttered no sound during a major operation of "naval surgery" without anaesthetics.

Further, he awarded me the signal and high honor of a full-dress "Viking's funeral."

Now a Viking's funeral cannot be solemnized every day in the week, for it involves, among other things, the destruction of a long-ship.

The dead Viking is laid upon a funeral pyre in the centre of the ship, his spear and shield are laid beside him, his horse and hound are slaughtered and their bodies placed in attendance, the pyre is lighted, and the ship sent to sea with all sail set.

On this occasion the offending French ship was dedicated to these ocean obsequies.

A specially selected lead soldier was solemnly endowed with the name and attributes of The Viking Eorl, John Geste, laid upon a matchbox filled with explosives, a pyre of matches built round him on the deck of the ship (the ship drenched with paraffin), his horse laid at the head of his pyre, and a small (china) dog at his feet.

All being ready, we bared our heads, Michael, with raised hand, solemnly uttered the beautiful words, "Aches to ashes and dust to dust, if thou won't have you the devil must," and, applying a match to the pyre, showed the long-ship (late French battleship) well into the middle of the lily-pond.

Here it burned gloriously, the leaping flames consuming the mast and sail so that the charred wreckage went by the board, and we stood silent, envisaging the horrors of a burning ship at sea.

As the vessel burned down to the water's edge, and then disappeared with hissing and smoking, Michael broke the ensuing silence with words that I was to remember many years later in a very different way. (Apparently Digby remembered them, too.)

"That's what I call a funeral!" said Michael. "Compare that with being stuck ten feet down in the mud and clay of a beastly cemetery for worms to eat and maggots to wriggle about in you. . . . Grigol! I'd give something to have one like that when my turn comes. . . . Good idea! I'll write it down in my will, and none of you dirty little dogs will get anything from me, unless you see it properly done."

"Righto, Beau," said Digby. "I'll give you one, old chap, whenever you like."

"So will I you, Dig, if you die first," replied Michael to his twin, and they solemnly shook hands upon it.

My gratification for these honours was the greater in that nothing had been further from my thoughts than such promotion and reward. Presumably had I survived in the past to win one of the band's recognition.

Canadian Student Is Winner of Fellowship

MR. PERCY MATEENKO

Canadian student, who has been announced as the winner of a fellowship in Germany at Columbia University, New York.

whether the blue stone had seen as much of human misery and villainy as the great green one. Quite possibly, the sapphire had faced the emerald, the one in the turban of Shivali, the Maratha soldier of fortune, and the other in that of Akbar, the Moghul Emperor.

And I remember wondering whether the stones, the one in the possession of a country gentleman, the other in that of the King of England, had reached the ends of their respective histories of theft, bloodshed and human suffering.

Certainly it seemed impossible that the "Blue Water" should again "see life" (and death)—until one remembered that such stones are indestructible and immortal, and may be, thousands of years hence, the cause of any crime that greed and covetousness can father.

Anyhow, I should be glad to see the big sapphire again, and hear anything that Sir Basil might have to say about it.

I remember that Augustus distinguished himself that evening. "I wonder how much you'd give for the 'Blue Water,'" he remarked to Sir Basil.

"I am not a dealer," replied that gentleman.

And when Claudia asked Aunt Patricia, if she were going to show Sir Basil the Priest's Hole and the hiding-place of the safe in which the sapphire resided, the interesting youth observed:

"Better not, aunt. He might come back and pinch it one dark night; the sapphire I mean, not the Hole."

Ignoring him, Aunt Patricia said that she would take Sir Basil and the other guests, a man named Lawrence, a Nigerian official who was an old friend, and show them the Priest's Hole.

The conversation then turned upon the marvelous history of the Hope Diamond, and the incredible but true tale of the misfortune which invariably befell its possessor; upon the Priest's Hole and the varying tide of religious persecution which led to the fact that the same hiding-place had sheltered Roman Catholic priests and Protestant pastors in turn, and upon the day when the valiant troops, searching for Father Campion, did damage to our floors, pictures, penelling and doors (traces of which are still discernible), without discovering the wonderfully contrived Priest's Hole at all.

On the following afternoon, the Captain deputed Claudia to get the Frenchman to tell us some tales.

"Decoy you handsome stranger to our lair," quoth he. "I would wring his secrets from him."

Nothing loth, Claudia exercised her fascination upon him after lunch, and brought him to our camp in the flower, a clearing in the woods near the house.

Here he sat on a log and absolutely thrilled us to the marrow of our bones by tales, most graphically and realistically told, of the Spahis, the French Foreign Legion, the Chasseurs d'Afrique, Zouaves, Turcos, and other romantically named regiments.

He told us of desert warfare, of Arab cruelties and chivalries, of hand-to-hand combats wherein swordman met swordman on horseback as in "days of old, of brave deeds, of yelled 'Touaregs', of women, secret Moorish cities, oases, mirages, sandstorms, and the wonders of Africa.

Then he showed us fencing tricks and feats of swordsmanship, until, when he left us, after shaking our hands and kissing Claudia, we were his body and soul.

"I'm going to join the French Foreign Legion when I leave Eton," announced Michael suddenly. "Get a commission and then join his regiment."

"So am I," said Digby, of course. "Augustus Brandon looked thoughtful."

"Could I be a vivandiere and come, too?" asked Isobel.

"You shall all visit me in your officers' uniforms," promised Claudia. "French officers always wear them in France. Very nice, too."

Next day we went back to our preparatory school at Slough.

The next time I saw the "Blue Water" was during the holidays before our last half at Eton.

The occasion was the visit of General Sir Basil Matkinson, an authority on gems, who was, at the time, Keeper of the Jewel House at the Tower of London, and had, I think, something to do with the British Museum. He had written a "popular" history of the well-known jewels of the world, under the title of "Famous Gems" and was now writing a second volume dealing with less known stones of smaller value.

He had written to ask if he might include an account of the "Blue Water" sapphire in his history.

I gathered from what Claudia had heard her say that Aunt Patricia was not extraordinarily delighted about it, and that she had replied that she would be very pleased to show Sir Basil the stone; but that very little was known of its history beyond the fact that it had been "acquired" (kindly word) by the seventh Sir Hector Brandon in India in the eighteenth century, when he was a soldier of fortune in the service of one of the Nawabs or Rajahs of the Deccan, probably Nijeraj, Sultan of Mysore.

The General was a very interesting talker, and at dinner that night he told us about such stones as the Timur Ruby, the Hope Diamond, and the Stuart Sapphire (which is in the King's crown), until the conversation at times became a monologue, which I, personally, greatly enjoyed.

I remember his telling us that it was he who discovered that the Nadirshah's Emerald was not, as had been supposed, a lump of glass set in cheap and crude Oriental gold-work. It had been brought to this country after the Mutiny as an ordinary example of medieval Indian jewel-setting, and was shown as such at the exhibition at the Crystal Palace. Sir Basil Matkinson had examined it, and found that the "scratches" on it were actually the names of the Moghul emperors who had owned it and had worn it in their turbans. This had established, once and for all, the fact that it is one of the world's greatest historical jewels in value. I think he added that it was now in the regalia at the Tower of London.

I wondered whether the "Blue Water" and the "Nadirshah's Emerald" had ever met in India, and George M. Mahanah, charged with vagrancy in the city police court yesterday, was remanded by Acting-Magistrate James Forman on his own recognizance until this morning. City Prosecutor Claude L. Harrison suggested this action be taken, in order that the accused might be given the opportunity of leaving the city at once. W. H. H. Pith was fined the sum of $5 for having no rear light on his automobile.
